

LIGHTING EVENTS

To register for the lighting lectures and the LED trade show, email rsvp@nysid.edu or call 212.472.1500, ext. 405. All lectures are free and open to the public. Professionals seeking continuing education credits may register for the lectures by visiting Academics/Continuing & Professional Studies at www.nysid.edu.

TRADE SHOW

Saturday, November 14, 10am - 4pm
LED Lighting Trade Show and Lectures

Top manufacturers exhibit the latest LED products. A series of continuing education lectures will be offered throughout the day to design professionals.

LIGHTING LECTURE SERIES

Wednesday, September 23, 6pm

Renee Cooley & Emily Monato

From Bergdorf Goodman to Tiffany & Co.: The Secrets of Retail Lighting

Renee Cooley graduated from Yale with an MFA in Photography. Within a few years of designing with Light & Space Associates, she participated in the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum renovation and expansion. In 1991 she began her own lighting practice. Award-winning and published projects include: the Norton Residence, Bergdorf Goodman–Plaza Level, and Four Seasons–Tokyo.

Emily Monato graduated with a BS degree in Interior Design from the University of Wisconsin–Madison. In 1992 she joined Renee Cooley in the lighting design practice now called Cooley Monato Studio (CoMoS). Award-winning and published projects include: Takashimaya Cosmetics–NYC, Graves 601 (Le Meridien Hotel–Minneapolis), and worldwide locations for Marc Jacobs, Gucci, and Tiffany & Co. For more information visit www.cooleymonato.com.

Wednesday, October 14, 6pm

Richard Renfro

Lighting Historic Interiors

Richard Renfro has been a lighting designer since 1979 when he received his Bachelor of Architecture degree. He established Renfro Design Group, Inc. in 1998. His professional experience includes lighting designs for civic and cultural institutions as well as historic sites, including Saint Thomas Church, Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art, and the Fragonard Room at The Frick Collection.

Wednesday, December 2, 6pm

Ann Schiffers

Bringing Materials to Light: The Secrets of the Professional Lighting Designer

Ann Schiffers has dedicated her entire career to the interaction of light and architecture and recently celebrated her 20th year in the industry. She holds an MFA degree from Parsons School of Design and has taught at the master's level at both Parsons and New York School of Interior Design for the past nine years. She opened her own lighting design studio, Ann Schiffers Lighting Design, LLC (ASLD) in 2002. Her completed projects can be seen throughout the United States, Japan, Indonesia, Hong Kong, and Korea.

New York School of Interior Design would like to thank the sponsors who have generously supported the Lighting Lecture Series and LED Trade Show.

We also recognize the following manufacturers and representatives participating in the LED Trade Show:

Academy Light
Barbican Lighting
Bruck Lighting Systems
Continental Lighting Systems, Inc.
Cree, Inc.
Eclipse Lighting
Electric Lighting Agency, Inc.
Erco
HessAmerica
HK Lighting Group

International Lights, Inc.
Lites on West Soho, Ltd.
Lutron Electronics, Inc.
Mundo Illumination
OptoLum, Inc.
Osram Sylvania
Traxon Technologies
USA Illumination (USAI)
Viabizzuno
XAL